Introduction

This paper provides an update on the most recent developments on Brexit that are relevant to Wales. It covers developments in Wales, the EU, Westminster, Scotland and Northern Ireland. The period covered is 4 – 25 February 2020, although reference is made to later events where information is available at the time of final drafting.
Developments in Wales

National Assembly for Wales

External Affairs and Additional Legislation Committee

The External Affairs and Additional Legislation (EAAL) Committee is the lead Committee in the Assembly for co-ordinating the Brexit-related activities of Committees.

The EAAL Committee is currently undertaking work on International Agreements, the Scrutiny of the Welsh Government’s International Strategy, and the negotiations between the UK and EU.

On 5 February the Welsh Government responded (PDF, 292KB) to the Committee’s 12 December 2019 report (PDF, 174KB) on the Welsh Government’s Draft International Strategy.

The most recent sessions of the EAAL Committee were:

- 10 February: The Committee held a scrutiny session with the Minister for International Relations and the Welsh Language, Eluned Morgan AM. The webcast can be seen here, and
- 24 February: After noting papers the Committee met in private. The webcast can be seen here.

On 10 February the Committee noted:

- Correspondence from the Counsel General and Brexit Minister to the Chair regarding the Committee’s report - Common policy frameworks: Assembly Scrutiny – 23 January (PDF 452KB);
- Correspondence from the Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Exiting the European Union to the Chair regarding the Withdrawal Agreement Bill - 29 January (PDF 361KB);
- Response from the Welsh Government to the Committee’s report on UK international agreements after Brexit – 3 February (PDF 256KB), and Annex A (PDF 169KB);
- Response from the Welsh Government to the Committee’s report on the Welsh Government’s draft international strategy (PDF 293KB)

On 24 February the Committee noted:

- Correspondence from the Chair of the House of Lords European Union Committee to the Chair regarding continuing engagement with the devolved legislatures - 12 February (PDF 68KB); and
- Correspondence from the Counsel General and Brexit Minister to the Chair regarding additional information following scrutiny session on 27 January 2020 - 14 February (PDF 262KB).

Other Committees

The Legislation, Justice and Constitution (LJC) Committee (formerly the Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee) publishes reports on subordinate legislation relating to the UK’s exit from the EU. They can be found on the Committee’s webpages.

The Committee is currently carrying out an inquiry into Wales' Changing Constitution including consideration of the implications of Brexit for the Welsh devolution settlement.
