

Funding and Information: Environmental, countryside and climate change projects

Updated: December 2013

Introduction

This guide outlines and signposts information and sources of financial assistance relating to environmental, countryside & climate change projects in Wales.

The schemes have been grouped, as far as possible, under specific titles depending on the primary focus of the scheme. However, there will be a certain amount of overlap between schemes priorities.

This list is not exhaustive.

Welsh Government

The Aggregates Levy Sustainability Fund for Wales

The Aggregate Levy was introduced by the Finance Act 2001, which came into effect in April 2002. Part of the money generated by the Levy has been used to set up a Sustainability Fund to address the environmental costs associated with aggregate extraction.

In Wales, the Fund will be used to address issues specific to Wales, including :

- Legacy of old minerals permissions;
- Promoting the use of alternative materials to aggregates;
- Reducing the impact of aggregate extraction;
- Environmental and amenity benefits to communities affected by aggregate extraction;

- Conserving sites of special interest; and
- Educational projects.

Funding is available for projects that address the above issues and meet the criteria set out in the information packs.

Natural Resources Wales

The purpose of Natural Resources Wales (NRW) is to ensure that the natural resources of Wales are sustainably maintained, used and enhanced, now and in the future. NRW supports a number of diverse projects throughout Wales. These include:

Splash

Our rivers, lakes and coastline are cleaner and healthier than they have ever been. The Welsh Government is offering funding, known as Splash grants which will be administered by NRW, to projects that will help people enjoy the wonderful waters of Wales. There is money available this year (2013/14) for projects that secure new or improved public access to Wales' rivers, lakes, canals, reservoirs, and coastal waters for recreational and educational activities.

Grants

NRW also offers grants to a diverse range of partners - local authorities, environmental organisations and voluntary bodies. Grants are offered to deliver projects that benefit both people and wildlife.

Grants from Natural Resources Wales are offered on an application basis to organisations and groups with Registered Charity status. Grants are usually offered at up to 50% of the overall project costs, so secured match funding is usually required before applying.

Information about any future Natural Resources Wales grant opportunities will be posted on their website and in the press.

- Hand Tools;
- Equipment Hire;
- Transport Costs; and
- Protective Clothing.

More information on Project Grants

Training Support Grants

For volunteers and staff of registered projects, these grants are available to help cover the costs of training courses and conferences. Eligible costs include travel expenses, subsistence and course fees.

More information on Training Grants.

Pre-Project Grants

Open to voluntary and community groups to help cover the costs of any studies or surveys that need to be undertaken before a project can begin; for example feasibility studies, business plans, ecological surveys or community appraisals. The studies must be undertaken by a third party. More information on

Start-Up Grants

Cover initial costs of setting up a group. Groups will usually have to be under a year old to be eligible to apply for the start-up grant. Some eligible start-up costs are listed below:

- Venue Hire;
- Publicity; and
- Affiliation costs.

More information on Start-up grants.

Wales Environment Link

Wales Environment Link (WEL) is the umbrella body for environmental and countryside non-governmental organisations in Wales. They are a busy network, active in a range of policy areas, and are the official link between the Welsh Government and Wales' environmental NGO sector.

WEL is:

- a mechanism and framework to help Welsh eNGOs to achieve collective goals
- a voice for the environment movement in Wales
- a route of communication and dialogue between eNGOs and government
- an information provider
