Dear Andrew,

Thank you for your written question WQ94674, regarding discussions with councils about reducing the number of large lorries going through small villages. I apologise for the lateness of the response.

The road freight industry plays an important role in supporting the Welsh economy and in peoples' everyday lives. As part of our ongoing Freight and Logistics work, we are looking to improve engagement on a number of planning issues with local authorities that may alleviate this issue.

The Regional Transport Plans that the Corporate Joint Committees are preparing now offer another forum within which Government can look at this issue.

Yours sincerely,

Ken Skates AS/MS
