The Minister for Health and Social Services (Mark Drakeford): Improving cancer waiting times is one of my top priorities. Health boards who are not meeting both cancer waiting times targets have produced recovery plans. They are subject to intervention and support from the Delivery Support Unit to ensure that their performance improves.

Darren Millar (Gorllewin Clwyd): A wnaiff y Gweinidog ddatganiad am nifer staff y GIG sydd wedi tynnu'n ôl o'r rhaglen Pencampwyr Iechyd? (WAQ64630)

Darren Millar (Clwyd West): Will the Minister make a statement on the number of NHS staff who have dropped-out of the Champions for Health programme? (WAQ64630)

Answer received for publication on 09 May 2013

Mark Drakeford: Over 1300 NHS staff registered to take part in Champions for Health and around 450 actively engaged in the campaign. This level of support is similar to that found in some other lifestyle change programmes; for example, with Stop Smoking Wales a third of smokers setting a quit date report quitting at four weeks.

The learning from this six month campaign is now being fully evaluated.

Darren Millar (Gorllewin Clwyd): A wnaiff y Gweinidog gadarnhau'r targedau arbedion ar gyfer pob bwrdd iechyd lleol am y flwyddyn ariannol gyfredol a sut y mae'n disgwyl i fyrddau iechyd lleol gyrraedd y targedau hyn? (WAQ64631)

Darren Millar (Clwyd West): Will the Minister confirm the savings targets for each local health board for the current financial year and how he expects local health boards to meet these targets? (WAQ64631)

Answer received for publication on 08 May 2013

Mark Drakeford: The Work for Wales campaign was launched last year to promote the unique prospects Wales can offer doctors at all levels. We are aware from an analysis done for the February to June 2012 period that 352 posts were filled successfully during that timeframe.

Darren Millar (Gorllewin Clwyd): A wnaiff y Gweinidog ddarparu amserlen ar gyfer ystyried adolygiad McClelland a gweithredu'r argymhellion? (WAQ64633)
