Dear Andrew,

Thank you for your written question in which you asked, will the Welsh Government commit to ending any grant funding of third sector organisations regarding the provision of legal advice to asylum seekers?

Please accept my apologies for the delay of my reply. Asylum and immigration law, including the regulation of and access to immigration legal advice, are reserved to the UK Government.

Due to the shortage of immigration legal advisors and legal aid providers in Wales, the Welsh Government provides funding to develop and improve the resilience of the legal sector in Wales.

Yours sincerely,

Sioned Williams AS/MS
