

Retiring and Defeated Members Payments

28 September 2020

Request for Information.

Thank you for your request received on 18 August and I must apologise again for the delay in issuing this response to you. You asked for the following:

To ask for the amounts paid to retiring and defeated members following the 2011 election.

The Independent Remuneration Board produces The Determination of Members Pay and Allowances which sets out the process by which the Resettlement Grant is calculated.

The table below shows the amount of resettlement grants paid to Members who ceased being Members at the end of the 2011 Assembly.

Please note for all payments made to Members, the first £30,000 of the payment is exempt from tax.
