Dear Adam,

Re: What practical steps is the Welsh Government taking to increase the percentage of Welsh workers whose salary is set by means of collective bargaining in line with the relevant national indicator? WQ89043

The Welsh Government believes trade unions make workplaces better, safer and fairer for all. We promote awareness of the role of trade unions, the benefits of joining a trade union, and the value of employers and trade unions working constructively in a spirit of mutual respect. And we encourage employers to provide trade union access, so that workers have the opportunity and choice to be represented collectively.

Yours sincerely,
