About the role

Casework

Casework jobs are responsible for handling a wide range of correspondence and casework at a level appropriate to the pay band. This includes following up on enquiries raised by individual constituents or campaign/lobbying groups, corresponding on behalf of the Member and signposting enquirers to appropriate sources of information, advice and guidance. Job holders will speak to constituents raising complaints and may on their behalf approach relevant public service organisations e.g. NHS or local government departments to support the constituent in resolving problems and issues raised.

In addition, the organisation of, and involvement in, public engagement events such as surgeries or other constituency activities may be seen in these roles.

The key characteristics of a casework role are:

- Ensuring that all cases are progressed promptly and proportionately and are concluded at the earliest opportunity.
- Managing a caseload, with supportive supervision appropriate to the level of the role.
- Gathering appropriate information to produce factual evidenced-based written reports.
- Keep accurate, up-to-date records and audit trails in accordance with data protection requirements.
- Communicating effectively with all parties both verbally and in writing.
- Responding to a broad range of general correspondence investigating and responding to queries as necessary.
- Ensuring that the work of the Member is promoted through participation in appropriate activities such as surgeries or community events.

Purpose of the job

A Band 3 Casework Officer working for a Member of the Senedd would typically be responsible for assisting constituents with issues they face and ensuring they receive the necessary support from government agencies, local councils and other organisations.
