Dear Russell,

Thank you for your recent Written Question asking me to outline what procedure is in place to ensure that not a single person is missed from being called for their second vaccine appointment.

All vaccinations in Wales are recorded directly into the Welsh Immunisation System. This system ensures that individuals are automatically called back for their second dose after the appropriate interval between doses. They will be contacted a minimum of three times with an offer of a vaccine appointment. If people cannot attend their appointment we ask them to let the health board know via the contact details provided in their invitation, so their appointment can be rescheduled.

There are also walk-in vaccination centres across Wales where there is no need for an appointment. The detail of these are on all Welsh Health Board websites.

Any individual concerned they have been missed is encouraged to check their Health Board's website for advice - <https://gov.wales/get-your-covid-19-vaccination-if-you-think-you-have-been-missed>. The Welsh Government and NHS are committed to ensuring that no one is left behind in our vaccine programme.

I hope you find this response helpful.

Yours sincerely
