Dear Samuel

Thank you for your recent written question asking me to provide an update on the proposed new hospital in west Wales.

Hywel Dda University Health Board submitted a programme business case linked to 'A Healthier Mid and West Wales' last year. The Health Board are now working with my officials to progress a business case that sets out the Strategic context, with a clear case for change along with outline high level benefits of the proposed new hospital in West Wales as the next stage in this business case process.

I hope you find this response helpful.

Yours sincerely
