Dear James

Thank you for your recent written question asking: "What discussions has the Welsh Government had with the NUS about its involvement with Anti-Racist Wales Action Plan, in light of the independent investigation into anti-Semitism in the NUS?". My response is set out in this letter.

Our Anti-Racist Wales Action Plan was developed in collaboration with a wide range of stakeholders and experts. It was published in June following extensive consultation.

Officials have been in regular contact with NUS Wales during the course of the investigations into antisemitism in the NUS. NUS Wales is a politically autonomous part of NUS UK, its policy and political leadership being determined by students in Wales.

Yours sincerely,

Jeremy Miles AS/MS
Gweinidog y Gymraeg ac Addysg
Minister for Education and Welsh Language
