Derbyniwyd ateb i'w gyhoeddi ar 2 Rhagfyr 2013
Answer received for publication on 2 December 2013

Mark Drakeford: All NHS organisations in Wales are working towards a set of core principles to determine nurse staffing on adult medical and surgical wards. We announced an additional £10 million in July to ensure these recommended staffing levels are achieved across Wales and we are monitoring progress regularly.

NHS Wales is in the process of introducing an acuity tool for adult acute in-patient settings as this will give a far more accurate indication of required staffing levels based on the needs of patients. It will be rolled out across Wales from April 2014.
