

Police investigations

16 May 2022

Request for Information.

Thank you for your request received on 29 April in which you asked:

Has the Presiding Officer, or other officials within the Senedd Commission including those responsible for standards and the conduct of Members, been informed of any police investigations involving Members of the Senedd?

We hold no recorded information in relation to your request.

The Senedd Commissioner for Standards is an independent and impartial provider of advice on any matter of principle relating to conduct of Members of the Senedd, and is an independent investigator of complaints alleging that Members of the Senedd have breached any Code, Protocol or resolution of the Senedd.

Whilst the Senedd is a public authority under the Freedom of Information Act, the Standards Commissioner is not. As such, he is under no legal obligation to provide the information. However, you may be interested in the Annual Reports which are available on the Standards Commissioner's website.

Yours sincerely
