Dear Dai,

I am writing to response to WQ81750: what are the financial options being considered alongside Social Care Wales and what are the timeframes to implement these options?

This work is currently policy in development and consideration is being given to a range of financial support options for social work students. We recognise the importance of progressing this work at pace and we anticipate that an initial analysis of the options will be complete in early 2021.

Yours sincerely,
