Gofyn i Brif Weinidog Cymru
To ask the First Minister

Andrew RT Davies (Canol De Cymru): Gan gyfeirio at gyfrifoldeb y Prif Weinidog dros ddigwyddiadau mawr, pa asesiad y mae wedi'i wneud o'r manteision posibl i Gymru bod Tîm Prydain Fawr yn chwarae gemau pêl-droed hanesyddol i ddynion a merched yn y Gemau Olympaidd yn Stadiwm y Mileniwm yng Nghaerdydd, ac a wnaiff amlinellu pa gamau y bydd ei Lywodraeth yn eu cymryd i fanteisio i'r eithaf ar y manteision hyn. (WAQ59823)

Andrew RT Davies (South Wales Central): With reference to the First Minister's responsibility for major events, what assessment has he made of the potential benefits for Wales as a consequence of Team GB playing historic men's and women's Olympic football matches at the Millennium Stadium in Cardiff, and will he outline what steps his Government will be taking to maximise these benefits. (WAQ59823)

Answer received for publication on 29 February 2012

The First Minister (Carwyn Jones): The Millennium Stadium will see the first action of the 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games – two days before the opening ceremony, when four of the qualifying women's football teams will play a double header of group games. The stadium will host 11 matches on eight dates in both the men's and women's football competitions, starting on Wednesday 25th July and finishing with the men's bronze medal match on 10th August. The stadium company will of course be benefiting directly as a result of its commercial agreement with LOCOG and becoming an Olympic competition venue also adds considerable value to its marketing strategy for attracting future events.

In terms of wider benefits to Wales, the eyes of the world will be on the UK in the summer of 2012 and the Olympic football matches at the Millennium Stadium are an opportunity for Wales to raise its distinctive profile with a range of influential audiences. In addition, significant investment by the London 2012 Organisation Committee (LOCOG) has been made in the infrastructure of the training facilities at Cardiff University's playing fields in Llanrumney, which will be used by teams scheduled to play here. Hosting visiting teams and the 'Olympic family' members and media in attendance will provide a further economic boost. The full extent of the economic impact on Wales will of course be largely contingent upon final ticket sales achieved by LOCOG and those calculations can only be made when the number and profile of visiting fans is known.

The Welsh Government is committed to maximising the opportunities from the London 2012 Olympics and Paralympics by promoting trade and investment, boosting tourism, and enhancing Wales's global reputation leading up to, during and following the Games.

Andrew RT Davies (Canol De Cymru): Pa sylwadau y mae Gweinidogion Llywodraeth Cymru wedi'u gwneud i Gymdeithas Bêl-droed Cymru, neu wedi'u cael ganddynt, o ran cynnwys pêl-droedwyr o Gymru yn ngharfan bêl-droed Tîm Prydain Fawr sy'n cael ei ffurfio unwaith yn unig ar gyfer Gemau Olympaidd 2012, ac a yw'r Llywodraeth yn bwriadu lloïo Gymdeithas Bêl-droed Cymru i adael iddynt gymryd rhan yn y gystadleuaeth. (WAQ59827)

Andrew RT Davies (South Wales Central): What representations have Welsh Government Ministers made to the FAW, or received from them, in relation to the involvement of Welsh footballers in the one-off Team GB football squad for the 2012 London Olympics, and does the Government plan to lobby the FAW to allow their participation in the competition. (WAQ59827)

Andrew RT Davies (Canol De Cymru): Gan gyfeirio at gyfrifoldeb y Prif Weinidog dros ddigwyddiadau mawr, pa drafodaethau sydd wedi'u cynnal rhwng Llywodraeth Cymru a Llywodraeth y DU ynghylch cynnwys pêl-droedwyr Cymru yn y garfan bêl-droed Tîm Prydain Fawr sy'n cael ei ffurfio unwaith yn unig ar gyfer Gemau Olympaidd Llundain yn 2012. (WAQ59828)

Andrew RT Davies (South Wales Central): With reference to the First Minister's responsibility for major events, what discussions have been held between the Welsh Government and the UK Government regarding the participation of Welsh players in the one-off Team GB football squads at the 2012 London Olympic Games. (WAQ59828)

Andrew RT Davies (Canol De Cymru): Pa gamau y bydd y Gweinidog yn eu cymryd i sicrhau y gellir manteisio i'r eithaf ar unrhyw fanteision posibl i economi Cymru o ganlyniad i gynnwys pêl-droedwyr Cymru mewn carfan bêl-droed Tîm Prydain Fawr, gan gyfeirio'n benodol at y gemau hanesyddol a gaiff eu cynnal yn Stadiwm y Mileniwm yng Nghaerdydd. (WAQ59824)

Andrew RT Davies (South Wales Central): What actions will the Minister be taking to ensure that any potential benefits to the Welsh economy as a consequence of Welsh involvement in a Team GB football squad are maximised, with particular reference to the historic matches that will take place at the Millennium Stadium in Cardiff. (WAQ59824)

Derbyniwyd ateb i'w gyhoeddi ar 29 Chwefror 2012
Answer received for publication on 29 February 2012

The Minister for Business, Enterprise, Technology and Science (Edwina Hart): The constitution of participating teams is a matter for the football authorities not for the Welsh Government, however the Welsh Government is committed to maximising the opportunities from the London 2012 Olympics and Paralympics by promoting trade and investment, boosting tourism, and enhancing Wales's global reputation leading up to, during and following the Games.

Angela Burns (Gorllewin Caerfyrddin a De Sir Benfro): A wnaiff y Gweinidog egluro a fydd costau ychwanegol i ffermwyr o ganlyniad i gynllun Llywodraeth Cymru i greu cronfa ddata ddefaid yng Nghymru. (WAQ59836)

Angela Burns (Carmarthen West and South Pembrokeshire): Will the Minister clarify if there will be an extra cost put on to farmers as a result of the Welsh Government's plan to create a sheep database in Wales. (WAQ59836)

Derbyniwyd ateb i'w gyhoeddi ar 01 Mawrth 2012
Answer received for publication on 01 March 2012

The Deputy Minister for Agriculture, Food, Fisheries and European Programmes (Alun Davies): I am considering a number of operating models including working in partnership with Defra to procure a joint England and Wales system or developing a Wales only system. Whichever option I select, the electronic reporting system and central database for Wales will allow data that is already in electronic format to be reported automatically and it will provide the opportunity for farmers to move away from maintaining paper records. The system will deliver savings as well as opportunities to increase profitability along the supply chain.

The system will be developed in partnership with the industry and is considered a key component of the Working Smarter programme.

Angela Burns (Gorllewin Caerfyrddin a De Sir Benfro): Pa gamau y mae'r Gweinidog yn eu cymryd i fynd i'r afael â'r gyfradd isel o ffermwyr sydd wedi manteisio ar y cynllun Glastir. (WAQ59838)

Angela Burns (Carmarthen West and South Pembrokeshire): What steps is the Minister taking in order to tackle the low take up rate of the Glastir scheme among farmers. (WAQ59838)

Andrew RT Davies (South Wales Central): Can the Minister confirm that the individual patient funding review panels for each local health board in Wales are currently convening and are not constrained by any end of year financial pressures in achieving this function. (WAQ59815)

Derbyniwyd ateb i'w gyhoeddi ar 29 Chwefror 2012
Answer received for publication on 29 February 2012

The Minister for Health and Social Services (Lesley Griffiths): Each request is examined on its merits by the individual patient funding review (IPFR) panel, informed by a clinical case establishing the exceptional need of the patient. This funding for exceptional cases is in addition to the funding routinely provided for all NICE approved drugs. I have no evidence that IPFR panels are convening less frequently or that Health Boards are constraining decisions for financial reasons.

Andrew RT Davies (South Wales Central): What actions will the Minister be taking to ensure that the publicity generated as a consequence of Team GB playing historic men's and women's Olympic football matches at the Millennium Stadium results in an increase in sports participation rates across Wales. (WAQ59825)

Andrew RT Davies (Canol De Cymru): Pa asesiad y mae'r Gweinidog wedi'i wneud o'r manteision posibl, o ran mwy o bobl yn cymryd rhan mewn chwaraeon ledled Cymru, a ddaw yn sgil cynnwys pêl-droedwyr Cymru yng ngharfan bêl-droed Tîm Prydain Fawr a gaiff ei ffurfio unwaith yn unig. (WAQ59826)

Andrew RT Davies (South Wales Central): What assessment has the Minister made of the potential benefits, in terms of increased sports participation across Wales, that the involvement of Welsh players in a one-off Team GB football squad would bring. (WAQ59826)

The Minister for Housing, Regeneration and Heritage (Huw Lewis): The Welsh Government fully supports the Millennium Stadium as a host venue for the Olympic Games Football Tournament which is a very exciting prospect and hosting such an event will raise the profile of sport across Wales. The football event offers an occasion which I hope will help to inspire young people across Wales to participate in the game and in sport generally. I would like to make clear that the configuration of the Olympic football tournament itself and the constitution of participating teams is a matter for the football authorities concerned and is not a matter for Welsh Government.

High profile sporting events do of course focus public and media interest on sport. It is important to have in place sport programmes which support participation in order that young people in particular have opportunities to become involved in sport. This helps to convert short term interest in sport into long term participation. Sport Wales have in place a number of sport programmes and they will continue to work with key partners to get more people involved in a wide range of sports, help in recruiting more coaches and encourage sports club membership, all of which helps people to lead a more healthy, active lifestyle.
