

20th November 2024

Dear Rhys,

Thank you for the written question you tabled for my response on 13th November in which you asked what avenues, except for building owners coming forward, is the Welsh Government considering to identify unsafe residences including allowing concerned parties to report suspected unsafe cladding, following the National Audit Office's report on dangerous cladding? (WQ94872)

A substantial amount of buildings have been identified through our Welsh Building Safety Fund. We are also working with Managing Agents, Developers and our recently formed Joint Inspection Team to target and identify further buildings.

I encourage Responsible Persons who have yet to submit an Expression of Interest to do so as soon as possible.

I hope this information is helpful in answering your question.

Yours sincerely,

Jayne Bryant AS/MS
