Earlier this year members of a paedophile gang were given long jail sentences at Swansea Crown Court. This gang was housed in Kidwelly by the Gwalia Housing Group. But why was this gang, originally from London, and with previous convictions, ever inflicted on a small Welsh town?

Regrettably, the Kidwelly case is one of many examples of known criminals and other undesirables being housed in Wales. Leading to a growing suspicion that Wales is being used as a dumping ground by English local authorities and other agencies. Aided by bodies within Wales receiving premium payments for housing such people.

Given that social housing providers are both registered with and funded by the Welsh Government, the time has surely come to review the rôle, responsibilities and funding of Welsh social housing providers.
