Condemnation of The British National Party's proposed Rally in Wales

"The National Assembly for Wales deplores the proposed holding of a rally by the British National Party , in Wales on the weekend of 11th August, especially in the light of recently racially incited violence in Oldham, Burnley and Bradford as a direct result of agitation by the BNP and other right-wing groups, and calls upon the Home Secretary David Blunkett together with the Secretary of State for Wales to exercise the most stringent measures to police and control the rally if they are unable to stop it taking place".
