Dear Laura Anne,

I am writing in response to WQ81858: What action is the Minister taking to provide mobile vaccination centres to access remote communities?

Mobile units are in place across Wales. There are currently 14 in operation delivered by our community nurses. The primary focus of these units is on reaching care homes. As supplies of the Oxford AstraZeneca increase more GP practices and pharmacies will be delivering the vaccine in communities across Wales. Local vaccination centres will also be established on a short or longer term basis to meet local needs.

Yours sincerely,
