

Motions and Amendments for Debate on 11 December 2002

Motions tabled on 4 December 2002

Short Debate

NDM1255 Gareth Jones (Conwy); The Transport System in the North - where are we going - integration or disintegration?

NDM1253 Carwyn Jones Bridgend

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales:

1. Notes the content of the UK Government's Legislative Programme for 2002-03;
2. Notes that the following proposed Bills are of particular relevance to the Assembly's responsibilities:
 - a) Communications (Culture Committee)
 - b) Community Care (Health and Social Services Committee)
 - c) Health and Social Care (Health and Social Services Committee)
 - d) Local Government (Local Government and Housing Committee)
 - e) Planning Reform and Compulsory Purchase (Environment, Planning and Transport Committee)
 - f) Waste and Emissions Trading (Environment, Planning and Transport Committee)
3. Remits the above Bills to the subject committees indicated for further consideration as to the provisions they should make for Wales and how the Assembly might use its new powers therein, and requests each committee to report to the Assembly.

NDM1254 Carwyn Jones Bridgend

The National Assembly:

1. Welcomes the Welsh Assembly Government Strategy for Older People in Wales;
2. Recognises that it will enable services across all sectors in Wales to plan to meet the needs of an ageing society and improve services for older people;
3. Acknowledges that the Strategy will contribute to, and be supported by, policies and programmes across the work of the Welsh Assembly Government;

4. Endorses the Strategy's conclusion that local government has a leading role to play in promoting the interests of older people at the local level and in communities; and

5. Supports the proposal to develop the Strategy and related action plan with advice from a new National Partnership Forum for Older People and investment of £10m over the next 3 years to underpin its implementation.

The Welsh Assembly Government Strategy for Older People in Wales, including the related Action Plan, was emailed to Members on 4 December 2002
