Dear Heledd,

Thank you for your Oral Question (OQ)61097 on 15 May about how the Welsh Government is supporting communities at risk of flooding in South Wales Central.

During my answer, I made a simple error when quoting the investment figures; the detail is clarified below:

We will provide more than £75 million to Flood Risk Management Authorities across Wales this financial year (2024-25). This includes £8.96 million to Risk Management Authorities in South Wales Central which will be used for improvement works to flood risk management infrastructure, benefitting approximately 5706 properties.

Yours sincerely,

Huw Irranca-Davies AS/MS
