

Activity 4: Voting

Everyone 16+ in Wales will have one vote, choosing a political party or independent candidate for Senedd Elections from 2026 onwards. Parties will let you know their ideas to help shape Wales for the future, but it will be up to you to choose your favourite. We call this voting and it happens every 4 years in Wales.

What age must you be in the UK to...

...donate blood?

...buy a pet?

...register to vote?

...be held criminally responsible?

...become a nun or a monk?

...fly commercial planes?

...adopt a child?

...own a venomous snake?

...own land, buy property and apply for a mortgage?

...vote in the Senedd Election?

...vote in the General Election?

If we had an election tomorrow, would you vote?

State your reasons here:

If your Members discussed the following topics how would you vote?

State your reasons why.

- School holidays should be changed to end the long summer break.
- The school day should be extended to 17.00, to include more sport, but ban all outside school homework.
- GPs should prescribe free football match tickets to help with depression.
- Welsh history should be a compulsory subject in all schools in Wales.
- Plastic supermarket packaging should be banned.
- Should students be required to wear school uniform?
- Should schools ban junk food?
- Should we let children play contact sports?
