Dear Adam,

Thank you for your recent Written Questions asking me to outline what provisions are being made for people who cannot get vaccinated for clinical reasons with regard to the NHS COVID Pass. You also asked me to confirm that the COVID Pass on the NHS Wales App will be able to provide vaccination exemptions for those who medically require them.

Individuals who are unable to be vaccinated for clinical reasons will be provided with an exemption on the NHS Covid pass. Where the NHS Covid pass is used for international travel it will be for the each country to determine its own entry requirements.

I hope you find this response helpful.

Yours sincerely
