1. Jocelyn Davies (South Wales East)

Add as new point at end of motion:

'Believes that partnership working has been undermined by the Assembly Government's failure to provide a sufficient level of support to local authorities which, via gearing, has placed great pressure on local government to continually increase council tax to unsustainable levels.'

Amendments tabled on 13 October 2005

To propose that the Assembly resolves to adopt the following amendments to motions:

NDM2634

1. Kirsty Williams (Brecon and Radnorshire):

Add new point at end of motion:

'Believes that the unsustainable increase in council tax has been inevitable given the gearing ratio inherent in council tax, the responsibilities of local authorities and the scale of the Revenue Support Grant and further believes that this has weakened partnership working between central and local government.'

2. David Melding (South Wales Central):

Add new point at end of motion:

Notes the continuing need for the Partnership Council to prepare a strategy to reduce unacceptably high levels of Council Tax.
