Answer received for publication on 22 May 2013

The Minister for Economy, Science and Transport (Edwina Hart): Superfast services are already available in parts of Monmouthshire as part of the commercial rollout. The Welsh Government and BT are working in partnership through the Superfast Cymru programme to bring the benefits of fibre broadband to those areas outside the commercial footprint.

Further information on the Superfast Cymru programme and a postcode checker is available on the Superfast Cymru website (www.superfast-cymru.com).
