NOTES TO TABLE

Other Travel

Includes air, rail, taxi, hire car and parking costs

Office Costs

Members are entitled to claim Office Costs Allowance to cover the costs to them of furnishing and maintaining an office where those costs are wholly, exclusively and necessarily incurred in connection with his/her duties as an Assembly Member.

Staff Salaries Allowance

Members are entitled to claim Staff Salaries Allowance to cover the costs to them of persons employed by them in an administrative, clerical or secretarial capacity or to undertake research where those costs are wholly, exclusively and necessarily incurred in connection with their duties as a Member of the Assembly.

A Member may also claim Temporary Staffing Allowance to meet the costs of any additional expenses wholly, exclusively and necessarily incurred in respect of their Assembly duties in obtaining temporary secretarial or research assistance while a person to whom a salary is paid by them under the Staff Salaries Allowance is prevented through illness, maternity leave or adoptive leave from providing such assistance. Any amount claimed is included in the entry for Staff Salaries Allowance

Additional Costs Allowance

The Additional Costs Allowance reimburses Members for expenses necessarily incurred in staying overnight away from their main home for the purpose of performing their duties as a Member.

Different levels of Additional Costs Allowance apply depending on the location of a Member's main home.

Party Leader's Allowance

Groups of three or more Members are entitled to an allowance to assist them in the discharge of their work in the Assembly. The allowance is payable only in respect of costs which are incurred by them wholly, exclusively and necessarily for the purpose of discharging their responsibilities.

The bulk of expenditure on this allowance is on the salary of staff employed in support of the management of the group's Assembly activities.

A Member may claim an additional amount of Staff Salaries Allowance (not exceeding £5,200 in the year commencing 1 April 2006) to cover the costs of overtime, training, travel, bonuses etc (including the additional Employer's National Insurance Contributions relating to any such payments).

Party Leader's Allowance

Groups of 3 or more Members are entitled to an allowance to assist them in the discharge of their work in the Assembly. The allowance is payable only in respect of costs which are incurred by them wholly, exclusively and necessarily for the purpose of discharging their responsibilities.

The amount of funding in the year commencing 1 April 2006 may be calculated in one of two ways – the choice of which method to be used is at the discretion of the party leader.

Method 1:

- (a) each group shall be entitled to an amount (the basic amount) not exceeding £100,650;
- (b) each group which is not represented by a Member in the Assembly Cabinet shall, in addition to the basic amount, receive an additional amount calculated in manner as follows :

For groups of 10 Members or less an amount of £59,220

For groups of more than 10 Members, the above amount plus for each additional 5 Members of the group (or part thereof) an additional amount of £24,235.

Method 2:

In the year commencing 1 April 2006 a party group may claim an allowance to cover the salary and related Employer's National Insurance Contributions for up to 4.0 full-time equivalent staff. No more than 1.0 full-time equivalent staff may come from Band 1. No more than 3.0 full time equivalent staff may come from Band 2 and the remainder from Band 3.

A group of 10 Members or less which is not represented by a Member in the Assembly Cabinet may appoint in addition up to 2.0 full-time equivalent staff. No more than 1.0 full-time equivalent staff may come from Band 4. No more than 1.0 full time equivalent staff may come from Band 2 and the remainder from Band 3.

A group of more than 10 Members which is not represented by a Member in the Assembly Cabinet is entitled to the staff mentioned above but for each additional 5 Members of the group (or part thereof) may appoint in addition up to 1.0 full-time equivalent staff. No more than 1.0 full-time equivalent staff may come from Band 2 as defined above and the remainder from Band 3.

The full time equivalent salary scales for these posts are as follows:

BAND	Point 1	Point 2	Point 3	Point 4	Point 5
1	£19,056	£20,808	£22,721	£24,810	£27,092

3	£14,630	£15,798	£17,061	£18,422	£19,894
4	£25,808	£27,154	£28,571	£30,060	£31,629

Party groups may claim an additional amount of Party Leader's Allowance in the year commencing 1 April 2006 to cover the costs of overtime, training, travel, bonuses etc (including the additional Employer's National Insurance Contributions relating to any such payments), the purchase of necessary equipment and hire of facilities etc .

The additional amount shall be calculated as follows:

- (a) each group shall be entitled to an amount (the basic amount) not exceeding £9,150;
- (b) each group which is not represented by a Member in the Assembly Cabinet shall, in addition to the basic amount, receive an additional amount calculated in manner as follows :

For groups of 10 Members or less an amount of £5,385

For groups of more than 10 Members, the above amount plus for each additional 5 Members (or part thereof) an additional amount of £2,20
