Reduced salary provisions

- (3) (a) With effect from 1 April 2010, for the purposes of determining pension entitlement in accordance with Rules F2 and F4 respectively, any participating Member or participating office holder's aggregate period of reckonable service (as defined in Rules E2(1) and E2(2)), shall be reduced on a pro rata basis for any period during which the participant chose to receive a lower salary than that to which he or she was entitled during the same period under the rules of the Scheme.
- (b) In the circumstances set out in (a) above, the participant's aggregate period of reckonable service shall be treated as reduced under Rule E2(3)(c), in the same proportion as the lower salary actually received by the participant bears (and from which relevant contributions were deducted under Rules D1 or D2) to the full equivalent Member's ordinary salary or office holder's salary (as appropriate) that would otherwise have been payable to the participant for the period in question.
- (c) For the purposes of this Rule E2(3), the participating Member's or participating office holder's equivalent period of aggregate reckonable service shall be determined by adjusting his or her aggregate period of reckonable service by applying the service factor adjustment 'C' below:-

$$A/B = C$$

Where:

A = the actual salary on which contributions were paid by the participant during the relevant period in question;

B = the full Member's ordinary salary or full office holder's salary which the participant was entitled to receive under the Scheme during the relevant period in question; and

C = the 'service factor adjustment' by which the participant's aggregate period of reckonable service is adjusted to reflect the period during which contributions were based on reduced salary.

- (4) For the future avoidance of doubt the 'service factor adjustment' 'C' (as defined in the preceding paragraph) shall not be applied to reduce the participant's aggregate period of reckonable service when calculating the following:
- (a) the length of the participant's qualifying period of service for the purposes of ascertaining the abatement percentage to be used under Schedule 2. However, the 'service factor adjustment' 'C' shall be applied for the purposes of calculating the actual level of pension benefit to which the participant is entitled under the early retirement provisions of Rules H1 and H2;

- (b) the enhancement to the ill-health pension payable under Rule J4;
 - (c) the enhancement to the death in service pension payable under Rule K4(2);
 - (d) the calculation of the qualifying period of service under Rule N1(2)(b) for entitlement to payment of a short service refund lump sum; and
 - (e) the length of the participant's qualifying period of service under Rule P1(1)(b) to be able to take a transfer payment from the Scheme. However, the 'service factor adjustment' 'C' shall be applied for the purposes of calculating the actual level of transfer value payment to be made in respect of that participant.
- (5) For the further avoidance of doubt, it is stipulated that 'service factor adjustment' 'C' shall be applied to reduce the participant's period of aggregate reckonable service for the purposes of calculating all other Scheme benefits (other than those mentioned at Rules E2(4)(a-e) above). In particular, the 'service factor adjustment' 'C' shall be taken into account, where added years are purchased under Schedule 4 paragraph 4, by periodical contributions which are payable by deduction from a Member's ordinary salary. Accordingly, the resulting added years' pension shall be based on the participating Member's aggregated period of reckonable service following application of the 'service factor adjustment' 'C'.

PART F

PENSION ENTITLEMENT

Entitlement of pensioner Members

- F1. Subject to the provisions of these Rules, a person who has ceased to be a participating Member and who has reckonable service as a participating Member under Part E shall be entitled to receive a pension under this Rule when he or she fulfils both of the following conditions:
- (a) he or she ceases to be a Member of the National Assembly for Wales, and
 - (b) attains the age of sixty-five years.

Amount payable to pensioner Members

- F2. (1) Subject to Rules F5 and F6, G1 (Commutation), H1 (Early retirement) and J1 and J3 (Ill health pensions), the annual amount of the pension payable to a person under Rule F1 shall be a sum equal to the aggregate of the amounts produced, in relation to each year or fraction of a year comprised in the person's aggregate period of reckonable service as participating Member, by multiplying the relevant terminal salary by the appropriate fraction.

- (2) In this Rule “the relevant terminal salary”
- (a) in relation to a person who has been a participating Member for a period of twelve months or more, or for two or more periods amounting in the aggregate to more than twelve months, means the amount of a Member's ordinary salary for the last twelve months (whether continuous or discontinuous) during which that person was a participating Member; and
 - (b) in relation to a person who has been a participating Member, but whose actual period of service as a participating Member was less than twelve months, means an amount calculated by taking the aggregate amount of a Member's ordinary salary for the period (whether continuous or discontinuous) for which he or she was a participating Member and multiplying it by the appropriate figure;

and in sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph "the appropriate figure" in relation to a person, means the figure (whether being a whole number or not) by which the number of days comprised in his or her period of service as a Member of the National Assembly for Wales must be multiplied in order to be equal to a year.

- (3) In paragraph (1) of this Rule “the appropriate fraction”, in relation to a year or part of a year comprised in a person’s aggregate period of reckonable service as a participating Member whose ordinary salary is not reduced by virtue of an order under section 17 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 or under section 21 (limit of salaries of Members of other public bodies) of the Act, means:-
- (a) in the case of service of a participating Member during a year or part of a year ending prior to the 1st April 2004, one-fiftieth or a proportionate fraction of one-fiftieth;
 - (b) in the case of service of a year or part of a year in the period between 1st April 2004 and 31st March 2005 of a participating Member who has not exercised the option under Rule D1(3A)(a), one-fiftieth or a proportionate fraction of one-fiftieth;
 - (c) in the case of service of a year or part of a year in the period between 1st April 2004 and 31st March 2005 of a participating Member who has exercised the option under Rule D1(3A)(a), one-fortieth or a proportionate fraction of one-fortieth;
 - (d) in the case of service for a year or part of a year commencing on or after 1st April 2005 of a participating Member who has not exercised the option under Rule D1(3A)(b), one fortieth or a proportionate fraction of one-fortieth; and

- (e) in the case of service for a year or part of a year commencing on or after 1st April 2005 of a participating Member who has exercised the option under Rule D1(3A)(b), one-fiftieth or a proportionate fraction of one fiftieth.

Where a Member's ordinary salary is or has been reduced by virtue of an order under section 17 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 or under section 21 of the Act "the appropriate fraction" for the periods while the member's salary was reduced shall be one-fiftieth for each year prior to 1st April 2004 or one-fiftieth or one-fortieth (as appropriate) for each year on or after 1st April 2004 reduced by the same proportion as the member's salary was reduced relative to a Member's ordinary salary at that time. Fractions of a year shall count in a similar manner.

Entitlement of pensioner office holders

- F3. (1) Subject to the provisions of these Rules, a person who has ceased to be a participating office holder and who has reckonable service as a participating office holder under Part E shall be entitled to receive a pension under this Rule when he or she fulfils both of the conditions specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of Rule F1.
- (2) The same person may be entitled to a pension under Rule F1 and to a pension under this Rule; and the amounts of the two pensions shall be cumulative.
- (3)(a) This paragraph shall only apply where there has been a dissolution of the National Assembly for Wales on or after 1 March 2011 which results:
 - (i) in the immediate cessation of payment of a member's ordinary salary to an individual who, immediately prior to dissolution, was a participating Member who had indicated his or her intention not to stand for election, and who will continue to receive an office holder's salary (following dissolution) until a new appointment has been made; or
 - (ii) in the continued payment of a member's ordinary salary to a participating Member who has indicated his or her intention to stand for re-election, and who will continue to receive an office holder's salary (following dissolution) until a new appointment has been made, but who is subsequently unsuccessful at the election.
- (b) In the circumstances at (a)(i) above, the individual will ordinarily, as a consequence of the cessation of payment of his or her salary as a Member of the National Assembly for Wales, cease with effect from the dissolution date, to be a participating Member of the Scheme and therefore, also cease to be a participating office holder in the Scheme. However, by virtue of this paragraph, the Rules that would ordinarily apply as above and in particular, Rule C2(1), shall be modified and shall be construed to incorporate such changes as may be necessary to give effect to the individual's continuing office holder salary (post dissolution) being deemed to be pensionable.

- (c) In the circumstances at (a)(ii) above, the individual will ordinarily continue to be a participating Member of the Scheme until the date that the member's ordinary salary ceases as a consequence of not being returned at the election and accordingly, the individual will also ordinarily cease to be a participating office holder with effect from that date. However, by virtue of this paragraph, the Rules that would ordinarily apply as above and in particular, Rule C2(1), shall be modified and shall be construed to incorporate such changes as may be necessary to give effect to the individual's continuing office holder salary (post election) being deemed to be pensionable.

Amount payable to pensioner office holders

F4. (1) Subject to Rules F5 and F6, to G1 (Commutation) and to H1 (Early Retirement), the provisions of this Rule shall have effect for the purpose of calculating the annual amount of a pension payable to a person under Rule F3.

(2) For each year of which the whole or any part was comprised in the person's aggregate period of reckonable service as a participating office holder the following amounts shall be calculated

(a) an amount equal to the sums deducted under Rule D2 in respect of that year from the person's salary (within the meaning of that Rule) except for this purpose that part of contributions under Rule D2(4) which represents the Assembly Commission's ongoing contribution shall be disregarded; and

(b) an amount equal to the aggregate amount which fell to be deducted under Rule D1 from a participating Member's ordinary salary in respect of that year;

and for each such year there shall be calculated the amount (referred to in these Rules, in relation to any such year, as "the contribution factor" for that year) which is equal to the amount calculated under sub-paragraph (a) divided by the amount calculated under subparagraph (b) of this paragraph.

(3) For each such year as is mentioned in paragraph (2) of this Rule a contribution credit shall be calculated by multiplying the appropriate fraction of the relevant terminal salary by the amount of the contribution factor for that year; and, subject to Rule G1 the annual amount of the pension payable to the person under Rule F3 shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of the contribution credits calculated under this paragraph.

(4) Subject to Rule F(4A) in this Rule "the relevant terminal salary"

- (a) if the person's actual period of reckonable service as a participating office holder was twelve months or more, means the amount of a Member's ordinary salary for the last twelve months (whether continuous or discontinuous) comprised in that actual period of reckonable service; and
- (b) if the person's actual period of reckonable service as a participating office holder was less than twelve months, means an amount calculated by taking the amount of a Member's ordinary salary for the period (whether continuous or discontinuous) which constituted that actual period of reckonable service and multiplying it by the appropriate figure; and in sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph "the appropriate figure" means the figure (whether being a whole number or not) by which the number of days comprised in the person's actual period of reckonable service as a participating office holder must be multiplied in order to be equal to twelve months.

- (4A) Where a participating Member has paid additional contributions under Rule D2(4), the "relevant terminal salary" shall be determined at the end of the period of reckonable service as an office-holder immediately following the interim period in respect of which the additional contributions were due.
- (5) In paragraph (3) of this Rule "the appropriate fraction" means :-
 - (a) in the case of service of a participating office holder during a year or part of a year ending prior to the 1st April 2004, one-fiftieth or a proportionate fraction of one-fiftieth;
 - (b) in the case of service of a year or part of a year in the period between 1st April 2004 and 31st March 2005 of a participating office holder who has not exercised the option under Rule D1(3A)(a), one-fiftieth or a proportionate fraction of one-fiftieth;
 - (c) in the case of service of a year or part of a year in the period between 1st April 2004 and 31st March 2005 of a participating office holder who has exercised the option under Rule D1(3A)(a), one-fortieth or a proportionate fraction of one-fortieth;
 - (d) in the case of service for a year or part of a year commencing on or after 1st April 2005 of a participating office holder who has not exercised the option under Rule D1(3A)(b), one-fortieth or a proportionate fraction of one-fortieth; and
 - (e) in the case of service for a year or part of a year commencing on or after 1st April 2005 of a participating office holder who has exercised the option under Rule D1(3A)(b), one-fiftieth or a proportionate fraction of one-fiftieth.

- (6) In paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Rule “year” (except in the expression “sixty-five years”) means a period of twelve months beginning with 1st April.

Permitted maximum pensions

- F5 (1) The annual amount of the pension payable under Rule F1 or Rule F3 to a person shall not exceed whichever is the less of
- (a) the amount equal to two-thirds of the multiple; or
 - (b) the amount equal to two-thirds of the permitted maximum.
- (2) In the case of a person who is entitled to a pension both under Rule F1 and under Rules F3, the amount of the two pensions together shall not exceed two-thirds of the permitted maximum and, if they do, the pension payable under Rule F3 shall be reduced before the pension payable under Rule F1.

Guaranteed minimum pensions

- F6. (1) Notwithstanding any provision of these Rules to the contrary, any person entitled to receive a pension under Rule F1 or Rule F3 (including an early retirement pension or an ill-health pension by virtue of Part H or Part J)
- (a) shall be entitled to receive, subject to the provisions of Rule F7(3), from state pension age a pension payable for the remainder of his or her life, at a rate equivalent to a weekly rate of not less than the guaranteed minimum pension, unless that person’s right thereto is extinguished by payment of a contributions equivalent premium under section 55 of the Pension Schemes Act 1993; and
 - (b) if the payment of the guaranteed minimum pension of that person is postponed in the circumstances to which section 13(4) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 applies, the guaranteed minimum pension of that person shall be increased to the extent, if any, specified in section 15(1) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993.

Duration of pensions

- F7. (1) Subject to the following provisions of this Rule, a pension under Rule F1 or Rule F3 (including an early retirement pension or an ill-health pension by virtue of Part H or Part J) shall continue for the life of the person to whom it is payable.
- (2) Any pension that is payable to a person under Rule F7(1) shall be reduced to nil, in respect of any period during which that person is a Member of the National Assembly for Wales; provided that such reduction shall not apply in relation to a Member who is entitled to or in receipt of a surviving spouse's, Partner's or child's pension under the provisions of Rule K.

- (3) The provisions of this Rule shall not apply for the purposes of calculating the amounts payable under Rules M2(3), M2(4)(b), M3(2)(b), M4(2) or M6 (five year guarantee).

PART G

COMMUTATION

Commutation into lump sum

- G1. (1) Any person who is entitled to receive a pension under Part F (including an ill-health pension payable by virtue of Part J) or who applies to receive a pension under Part H may, before the first instalment of the pension is paid, give notice to the Trustees that he or she desires to commute into a lump sum such part of the pension as is specified in the notice.
- (1A) with effect on and after 1st November 2006 however, a person may only give notice under paragraph (1) at least six months before he or she reaches the age of 75, or such later time before he or she reaches age 75 as the Trustees permit, and the lump sum payable as a result of the notice must be paid to him or her before that individual reaches age 75.

Where such lump sum becomes payable following notice provided by a member immediately prior to their 75th birthday in accordance with Rule G1(A) above, the provisions of Rule F7(2) shall apply, to enable the Member's pension to come into payment but be reduced to nil, until the individual ceases to be a Member of the National Assembly for Wales.

- (2) Where a person has given notice under this Rule, the Trustees shall determine
- (a) what lump sum would be actuarially equivalent to the part of the pension specified in the notice; and
 - (b) what reduction of the annual amount of his or her pension would be appropriate in consideration of the payment of that lump sum; and subject to the following provisions of this Rule, a lump sum of the amount so determined shall be paid to that person and the annual amount of his or her pension shall be reduced accordingly.

- (3) Any lump sum or reduction to be determined under paragraph (2) above shall be a sum or reduction either certified by the Actuary appointed under Rule S1, or calculated in accordance with tables to be prepared from time to time by the Actuary, as fulfilling the conditions specified in sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of that paragraph, as the case may be.
- (4) If, in the case of any person who has given notice under this Rule, the amount of the lump sum determined in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3) above, would exceed the maximum commutable sum
 - (a) the amount of the lump sum so determined shall be diminished by such proportion as is necessary to make it equal to the maximum commutable sum; and
 - (b) the reduction of the annual amount of his or her pension under that Rule shall be diminished by the like proportion.
- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (4) above, the maximum commutable lump sum is the “permitted maximum” relating to pension commencement lump sums as defined and set out in Schedule 29 to the Finance Act, or such higher amount as is permitted by Schedule 36 to the Finance Act, where the person has the benefit of pension commencement lump sum protection.
- (6) In determining the amount of the lump sum under this Rule, the maximum commutable sum shall if necessary be diminished so that the annual amount of pension shall not be reduced under paragraph (4) above below the rate of the guaranteed minimum pension.
- (7) Any person (not yet aged 75) who is entitled to pension benefits payable under Rule F which exceed the “Standard Lifetime Allowance” (as defined in the Finance Act), may receive a lifetime allowance excess lump sum from the Scheme, provided that the lump sum meets the conditions set out in paragraph 11 of Schedule 29 to the Finance Act.

PART H

EARLY RETIREMENT AND EARLY ABATED PENSIONS

Early retirement for Members

- H1. (1) Where a person who
- (a) has ceased to be a Member of the National Assembly for Wales; and
 - (b) either was a participant or deferred pensioner of the Scheme prior to 6th April 2006 who attains the age of fifty years or, who becomes a new participant in the Scheme on or after 6th April 2006 and who attains the age of fifty-five years, (unless that individual has the benefit of a protected pension age in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 22 of Schedule 36 to the Finance Act);

applies in writing to the Trustees for an immediate pension under this Rule then, if the Trustees are satisfied that he or she does not intend to stand for re-election to the National Assembly for Wales, he or she shall be entitled to receive a pension under Rule F1 as if he or she had attained the age of 65 years on the date of his or her application or, if later, such other date as may be there specified; but the annual amount of the pension to which the person is so entitled, both before and after he or she attains the age of sixty-five years, shall (subject to Part G (Commutation)) be an amount calculated in accordance with Rule F2 and abated in accordance with Schedule 2.

- (2) For the purpose of this Rule, service of a person as a Member of the House of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom or as a Member of the Parliament of the European Communities may count towards his or her qualifying period to the extent that it is not concurrent with service as a Member of the National Assembly for Wales.
- (3) For the purposes of calculating an early retirement pension under Rules H1 and H2, existing members of the Scheme as at 1st December 2006, may only count that part of their service which constitutes actual service in the Scheme after 1st December 2006, as a “qualifying period” of service in the calculation of the relevant abatement percentage under Schedule 2. For the avoidance of doubt, all reckonable service prior to 1st December 2006 shall count as qualifying service for the purposes of the calculations to be undertaken under Schedule 2.
- (4) For the purposes of Rules H1 and H2, a new entrant to the Scheme after 1st April 2007, may not receive an early retirement un-abated pension under the provisions of Schedule 2; notwithstanding that his or her age together with his or her qualifying period of service amounts to 80 or more years.
- (5) With effect from 1 July 2010, for the purposes of calculating an early retirement pension under Rules H1 and H2, the relevant abatement percentage to be applied to the early retirement pension under the provisions of Schedule 2 shall (comply fully with the requirements of preservation legislation) and shall be calculated in accordance with such external tables as are prepared from time to time by the Actuary appointed under Rule S1 and adopted and notified to members of the Scheme by the Trustees. In preparing such tables the Actuary must seek to achieve cost neutrality, i.e. that the likely total cost to the Scheme, over time, of paying pensions is the same irrespective of the age at which individuals begin to be paid a pension.

Early retirement for office holders who have been Members

- H2. A person who is entitled to receive a pension under Rule H1 who is or has been a participating office holder shall (subject to Part G (Commutation)) be entitled also to receive a pension under Rule F3 calculated in accordance with Rule F4 and abated in accordance with Schedule 2 and payable from the same date as the pension payable under Rule H1.

PART J

ILL-HEALTH PENSIONS

Tier 1 ill-health pensions based on service as a participating Member

- J1. (1) A participant who because of ill-health ceases to be a participating Member before attaining the age of 65 years may apply to the Trustees for an early pension under Rule F1 if at the time when the participant so ceases ("the material time") he or she would have become entitled to receive a pension under that Rule but for the fact that he or she has not attained the age of 65 years.
- (2) If on an application under this Rule the Trustees are satisfied that the following conditions are met-
- (a) that the applicant does not intend to seek re-election to the National Assembly for Wales;
 - (b) that the applicant ceasing as mentioned in paragraph (1) above is a direct consequence of his or her ill-health;
 - (c) that the applicant's ill-health is such as would prevent him or her from performing adequately the duties of a Member of the National Assembly for Wales;
 - (d) that the ill-health does not prevent the individual from doing any other gainful work;
 - (e) that the ill-health is expected to be permanent and to continue to prevent the individual from performing adequately the duties of a Member of the National Assembly for Wales; and
 - (f) that the application is accompanied by evidence that a doctor is satisfied that the conditions in sub-paragraphs (c) and (e) are met

the applicant shall be entitled to receive a "tier 1" ill-health pension payable under Rule F1 as from the material time and calculated in accordance with Rule F2.

- (3) A person who, if he or she were to cease to be a participating Member as mentioned in paragraph (1) above at a particular time in the future because of ill-health, would become entitled to make an application under that paragraph, may make such an application before that time, specifying in it the time when he or she proposes so to cease, and where on such an application the Trustees are satisfied that if the applicant so ceases at the time specified therein, he or she will be entitled under paragraph (2) above to receive a pension under Rule F1 as from that time, they shall give the person notice in writing to that effect.

- (4) The annual amount of a tier 1 ill-health pension payable under Rule F1 to a person by virtue of this Rule J1 shall (subject to Part G (Commutation)) be calculated in accordance with Rule F2 on the assumption that the applicant had already reached the age of 65 on the day on which he or she ceased to be a Member of the National Assembly for Wales, in which case no reduction or abatement for early retirement shall apply. If at the time the Member retires his or her salary as a Member of the National Assembly for Wales is reduced by virtue of an order under section 17 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 or under section 21 (limit of salaries of Members of other public bodies) of the Act, then it shall be assumed for the purpose of this calculation that during the period until the person attains the age of 65 years he or she would continue to be paid a salary at such reduced level.

(4A) In the circumstances where a pensioner Member who is aged 65 or more and who is in receipt of an ill-health pension from the Scheme seeks to stand for re-election to the National Assembly for Wales, that element of his or her pension previously enhanced for incapacity under Rule J1(4) shall be disregarded when determining his or her aggregate period of reckonable service as a participating Member (as outlined in Rules E1 and E2) for the purposes of calculating his or her pension entitlement in accordance with Rule F2.

(5) For the purposes of this Rule J1, a person who has ceased to be a participating Member in consequence of a general election for the National Assembly for Wales shall be treated as having so ceased because of ill-health which would qualify for a tier 1 ill-health pension if, but only if, the person satisfies the Trustees that as a direct consequence of his or her ill-health he or she did not seek re-election to the National Assembly for Wales at that election.

(6) In this Rule J1, “gainful work” means work under a contract of employment, service or apprenticeship or as the holder of an office (including holding public office or serving as a Councillor), or as a self-employed person engaged in a business or profession, being in any case work from which the person concerned gains the whole or a substantial part of his or her income.

(7) In this Rule J1, “permanent” in relation to a situation or health condition means that the situation or condition will continue until the applicant attains age 65.

Tier 2 ill-health pensions based on service as a participating Member

J1A. (1) A participant who because of ill-health ceases to be a participating Member before attaining the age of 65 years may apply to the Trustees for an early pension under Rule F1 if at the time when the participant so ceases (“the material time”) he or she would have become entitled to receive a pension under that Rule but for the fact that he or she has not attained the age of 65 years.

(2) If on an application under this Rule the Trustees are satisfied that the following conditions are met-

- (a) that the applicant does not intend to seek re-election to the National Assembly for Wales;
- (b) that the applicant ceasing as mentioned in paragraph (1) above is a direct consequence of his or her ill-health;
- (c) that the ill-health prevents the applicant from performing adequately the duties of a Member of the National Assembly for Wales;
- (d) that the ill-health prevents the applicant from doing any other gainful work;
- (e) that the ill-health is expected to be permanent and to continue to prevent the individual from adequately performing the duties of a Member of the National Assembly for Wales and from doing any gainful work; and
- (f) that the application is accompanied by evidence that a doctor is satisfied that conditions (c), (d) and (e) are met,

the applicant shall be entitled to receive a "tier 2" ill health pension payable under Rule F1 as from the material time, but calculated in accordance with Rule F2 as modified by Rule J1A(4) below.

(3) A person who, if he or she were to cease to be a participating Member as mentioned in paragraph (1) above at a particular time in the future because of ill-health, would become entitled to make an application under that paragraph, may make such an application before that time, specifying in it the time when he or she proposes so to cease, and where on such an application the Trustees are satisfied that, if the applicant so ceases at the time specified therein, he or she will be entitled under paragraph (2) above to receive a pension under Rule F1 as from that time, they shall give the person notice in writing to that effect.

(4) The annual amount of a tier 2 ill-health pension payable under Rule F1 to a person by virtue of this Rule shall (subject to Part G (Commutation)) be calculated in accordance with Rule F2, but for the purposes of that calculation his or her actual period of reckonable service as a participating Member shall be increased by a period equal to the period between the date on which he or she ceased to be a Member of the National Assembly for Wales (as mentioned in paragraph (1) above) and the date on which he or she would attain the age of 65 years. If at the time the Member retires his or her salary as a Member of the National Assembly for Wales is reduced by virtue of an order under section 17 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 or under section 21 (limit of salaries of Members of other public bodies) of the Act, then it shall be assumed for the purpose of this calculation that during the period until the person attains the age of 65 years he or she would continue to be paid a salary at such reduced level.

(5) For the purposes of this Rule J1A, a person who has ceased to be a participating Member in consequence of a general election for the National Assembly for Wales shall be treated as having so ceased because of ill-health which would qualify for a tier 2 ill-health pension if, but only if, the person satisfies the Trustees that as a direct consequence of his or her ill-health he or she did not seek re-election to the National Assembly for Wales at that election.

(6) In this Rule J1A, “gainful work” means work under a contract of employment, service or apprenticeship or as the holder of an office (including holding public office or serving as a Councillor), or as a self-employed person engaged in a business or profession, being in any case work from which the person concerned gains the whole or a substantial part of his or her income.

(7) In this Rule J1A, “permanent” in relation to a situation or health condition means that the situation or condition will continue until the applicant attains age 65.

III-health pensions based on service as a participating office holder

- J2. (1) A participant who because of ill-health ceases to be a participating office holder before attaining the age of sixty-five years may apply to the Trustees for an early pension under Rule F3 if at the time when the participant so ceases (“the material time”) he or she would have become entitled to receive a pension under that Rule but for the fact that he or she has not attained the age of sixty-five years.
- (2) If on an application under paragraph (1) above, the Trustees are satisfied that the relevant criteria has been met under Rules J1(2) or J1A(2) ,as appropriate, the applicant shall be entitled to receive a pension under Rule F3 as from the material time.
- (3) Rule J1(3) and Rule J1A(3), as appropriate shall apply in relation to paragraphs (1) and (2) above as it applies to paragraphs (1) and (2) of each of those Rules, the reference to a pension under Rule F1 being for this purpose read as a reference to a pension under Rule F3.
- (4) The annual amount of a pension payable under Rule F3 by virtue of this Rule shall (subject to Part G (Commutation)) be calculated in accordance with Rule F4.
- (5) Rule J1(5) and Rule J1A(5) shall apply, as appropriate, for the purposes of this Rule.

III-health pensions for former Members

- J3. (1) A person who because of ill-health has, while neither a Member of the National Assembly for Wales nor a candidate for election to it, permanently ceased to perform gainful work before attaining the age of 65 years may apply to the Trustees for early payment of his or her pension under Rule F1 if at the time when the person so ceased to perform gainful work he or she would have become entitled to receive a pension under that Rule but for the fact that he or she had not attained the age of 65 years.
- (2) If on an application under this Rule the Trustees are satisfied that the following conditions are met-
- (a) that the applicant does not intend to seek election to the National Assembly for Wales;

- (b) that the applicant's permanently ceasing to perform gainful work was a direct consequence of his or her ill-health; and
- (c) that his or her ill-health is such as would permanently prevent him or her from performing adequately the duties of a Member of the National Assembly for Wales,
- (d) that the application is accompanied by evidence that a doctor is satisfied that conditions (b) and (c) are met, the applicant shall, as from the date on which the Trustees are so satisfied, be entitled to receive a pension under Rule F1.

- (3) Where an application is made under this Rule, the Trustees shall by notice in writing inform the applicant whether they are satisfied as mentioned in paragraph (2) above and, if they are so satisfied, shall state the date from which the pension shall be payable.
- (4) In Rules J3 and J4, "gainful work" means work under a contract of employment, service or apprenticeship or as the holder of an office (including holding public office or serving as a Councillor), or as a self-employed person engaged in a business or profession, being in any case work from which the person concerned gains the whole or a substantial part of his or her income.
- (5) In Rules J3 and J4, "permanent" in relation to a situation or health condition means that the situation or condition will continue until the applicant attains age 65.

Ill-health pensions for former office holders

- J4. Rule J3 shall apply in relation to a person who because of ill-health has, while neither a Member of the National Assembly for Wales nor a candidate for election to it, nor an office holder, permanently ceased to perform gainful work before attaining the age of sixty-five years and who applies to the Trustees for early payment of his or her pension under Rule F3; and where Rule J3 applies to such a person any reference to Rule F1 shall be construed as a reference to Rule F3.

Requirement for Incapacity for occupation

- J4(A) No person is entitled to receive an ill-health pension by virtue of the provisions of this Rule J, unless the person has in fact ceased to carry on his or her occupation.

Medical evidence

- J5. (1) Every application under this Rule J, must be accompanied by evidence from a registered medical practitioner that the applicant is (and will continue to be) incapable of carrying on the applicant's occupation because of physical or mental impairment.

- (2) In the case of any such application the Trustees may require the applicant to undergo a medical examination by a medical practitioner or practitioners nominated by them for the purpose and the Trustees may call for further medical reports or evidence; and the fees for any such examination or reports shall be borne by the Trustees or the applicant, as the Trustees may determine.
- (3) In considering whether an applicant under this Rule J, (or an existing ill-health pensioner if in pursuance of the Trustees' power to review under Rule J6) is incapable of carrying on his or her duties or of performing any gainful work, the Trustees may take account of the views of any registered medical practitioner nominated by them as to the potential impact of any medical treatment that the individual could undergo.

Trustees' power to review ill-health pensions

J6. (1) The Trustees may review an individual's entitlement to an ill-health pension made under Rule J at any time before the individual reaches the age of 65 (and may carry out such a review at regular intervals determined by them).

- (2) The Trustees may require an individual whose entitlement is being reviewed to provide evidence from a doctor on his or her state of health.
- (3) The Trustees may at their absolute discretion reduce the amount of an ill-health pension in payment to an individual to the extent that they consider appropriate. The Trustees may also vary or terminate the pension if satisfied following a review that the individual's state of health
 - (i) in the case of a tier 2 ill-health pension payable under Rule J1A, no longer permanently prevents the individual from performing adequately the duties of a Member of the National Assembly for Wales or from performing any gainful work or;
 - (ii) in the case of a tier 1 ill-health pension payable under Rule J1, no longer permanently prevents the individual from performing adequately the duties of a Member of the National Assembly for Wales;

determine that the individual:

- (a) is no longer to be entitled to any ill-health pension under this Rule, or
- (b) is to be entitled to a tier 1 ill-health pension instead of a tier 2 ill-health pension, but only where they remain satisfied that the individual's state of health still prevents him or her from adequately performing the duties of a Member of the National Assembly for Wales.
- (4) Where the Trustees have reduced or terminated a pension under this Rule J6, the Trustees shall (subject to compliance with statutory preservation requirements) determine the level of pension that shall be payable to the individual from the date when he or she fulfils the conditions to retire in Rule F1. The Trustees may reduce the amount of pension payable under Rule F2, in such manner as the Actuary recommends, to take into account any lump sum received by the individual under Rule G at the time he or she originally retired on ill-health under this Rule J.

- (5) The Trustees may determine that an individual who unreasonably refuses to be examined in accordance with Rule J5, or who otherwise fails to co-operate with a review, is no longer to be entitled to an ill-health pension from the Scheme under this Rule J.
- (6) If the Trustees make a determination under this Rule to either, stop a recipient's pension payments or, as the case may be, reduce the level of pension payable, the recipient shall be provided with one month's notice of their decision.
- (7) The Trustees shall not stop a pension under this Rule if the recipient is aged 65 or more at the date of the review.

8. Where the Trustees accept a transfer payment and are informed by the transferor of the details of a Pension Debit relating to the transfer payment, the Trustees must take account of the Pension Debit, if appropriate, in the calculation of any limit on benefits for that participant.
9. If the Ex-Spouse dies after a Pension Sharing Order, agreement or equivalent provision is made but before it is acted upon by the Trustees, the following benefits may be paid. A lump sum death benefit may be paid to any person at the discretion of the Trustees. The lump sum is limited to 25% of what would have been the cash equivalent of the fund which would have provided the Pension Credit Rights for the Ex-Spouse.
