Dear Darren,

I am writing in response to WQ97441: What discussions has the Cabinet Secretary had with Dŵr Cymru regarding their intention to cut 500 jobs?

My officials have met with Dŵr Cymru to discuss the consultation, and I will be receiving regular updates from them on developments as the consultation process progresses.

The Welsh Government remains committed to supporting workers and ensuring that the consultation properly considers the long-term resilience of services, alongside the wellbeing of those employed by the company.

Officials will continue to meet with Dŵr Cymru throughout this consultation process and I will engage with them during my regular meetings.

I hope this answers your question.

Yours sincerely

Huw Irranca-Davies MS
