Answer received for publication on 22 January 2013

Lesley Griffiths: The Welsh Government wrote to GPC Wales in December 2012 setting out the proposed changes to the GMS contract for 2013/14. The proposed changes included proposals to eliminate Minimum Practice Income Guarantees (MPIG) payments to GPs in order to address variations in funding across GP practices in Wales and highlighted any withdrawal of MPIG should not undermine the financial viability of a GP practice and the ability of the GP practice to continue to provide high quality patient care. The Welsh Government is currently discussing with GPC Wales its concerns about MPIG withdrawal, in particular, the impact of MPIG withdrawal on rural practices, multi-site practices and small practices.
