Policy Review of Economic Inactivity within Wales

Neath Port Talbot Young People's Partnership

Within the Neath Port Talbot Young People's Partnership it was decided to formulate a response for the Economic Development and Transport Committee.

The YPP were asked for volunteers to form a working group to find the best way forward. Represented on the working group were The YPP Framework Support Team, Careers Wales West, Neath Port Talbot Council for Voluntary Services, Jobcentreplus, Neath Port Talbot Council's Social Inclusion Officer and the Youth Service.

The group chose to hold a focus group/conference for young people to hear their views, rather than making the assumption that we knew what they would say. The timetable for the day is appended (Appendix 1) we also held a quiz during the day (Appendix 2 – with answers), which focused people's attention.

A total of 27 young people from all over the County Borough, and from differing backgrounds, attended the event, which they told us they thoroughly enjoyed. During the day we held two workshops, "What is out there to help you find work?" and "What stops you finding work?" The feedback from these (Appendix 3) gave rise to the conclusions which follow and the possible policy changes that could help alleviate them.

Also attached (Appendix 4) are two papers produced by Jobcentreplus entitled "Economic Inactivity of 18-25 year olds in Pelenna Ward Neath Port Talbot" and "Jobcentreplus Action Team for Jobs".

Positive Impact – What we need more of
Internet – easily accessible, free at the library but otherwise expensive.
Action Team for Jobs, offer financial incentives and cater for individual needs.
Colleges – provide you with what you want and treat you like adults.
Youth Gateway – Help with CVs and team building.
Volunteering – get experience/ try different things, job opportunities at the place where you volunteer.
Open Days and Jobsfairs

Negative Impact/ Problems we've faced
Low Pay/ Wages Long Hours
Bullying
Lack of experience
Lack of transport
Young people get taxed, why pay tax to a government we can't vote for Qualifications
Criminal record
Drug and Alcohol Abuse
Pregnancy
Financially not worth it
Ethnic Origin
Sexuality
Exploitation

Policy Changes that may help

• More Modern Apprenticeships and more variety
• Less qualifications needed to start a modern apprenticeship, you need 4 GCSE's at present
• INCREASE NATIONAL MINIMUM WAGE, also impose NMW for 16-17 year olds
• More work experience opportunities, only 2 weeks at the moment, would be better if there was the opportunity to do more jobs on work experience
• More work trials and placement opportunities
• More on the job training
• More understanding of drug and Alcohol abuse, perhaps designated employers to take you through the transition period
• Help with the transition from school/college to work
• Better working environment, more understanding employers, lack of respect for new starters
• More available information before taking GCSE options
• Longer opening hours for Jobcentres, only open in school time at the moment
• Longer appointments at Jobcentre, always feel rushed when signing on – as if they're short staffed
• Action Team for Jobs – extend eligible wards
• More access to computers and the internet
• Better childcare facilities
• More general information and support
• More team building programmes
• Help with driving lessons and license
• Transport – free bus passes to work and more buses from rural areas to towns and cities in time to start work
• More practical courses in schools, don't just focus on academic courses
• Classes for interview techniques
• The age that you are classed an adult should be the same for everything <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ 14 on transport○ 16 to get married (and sexual consent) and to work and pay taxes○ 18 to be able to claim benefits and vote

WHAT IS OUT THERE TO HELP YOU FIND WORK/WHAT IS GOOD ABOUT IT AND WHY?

JOBCENTRE

GOOD	BAD
One place with a good selection of jobs	Too many jobs and you have to have experience and qualifications
No appointment needed	Some jobs are out of the area and too far to travel
They have their own website
They find you work	If you live in the wrong area they cannot help

CAREERS

GOOD	BAD
Give you advice on making decisions	Do not tell you what to do!
Advice on courses	Can confuse you
Can refer you to jobs/training
Send you vacancies in the post
Help you with CV's, interview preparation
Give you support - your own personal advisor

AGENCIES

GOOD	BAD
Find you work	Not always where we live
Convenient – you can phone	Only temporary

INTERNET

GOOD	BAD
Information about jobs	Sometimes hard to find 'site' for information
Helps with decision making	Information not always updated
Shows vacancies	Do not always get responses after you have applied for jobs
Can access CV programmes

NEWSPAPERS

GOOD	BAD
Cheap	Some adverts on Wednesday and Saturday
Lots of jobs advertised	Not always the jobs you want
	Not enough information about the job to help you decide if you want to apply

VOLUNTEERING

GOOD	BAD
Get experience	Don't get paid
Try different things to help you decide what you may want to do	You only get to do the boring bits of the job
Can still job hunt when you are volunteering	You could feel guilty if you leave to start paid work
A job could come up and you could apply because you are there

FAMILY AND FRIENDS

GOOD	BAD
Support you	Sometimes you can't have a job if someone from your family already works for the company
Give you ideas	Can be unfair if you don't have contacts
They can be used as contacts	You can be pushed into doing something you don't want to do

WHAT DO WE NEED MORE OF?

- More information about how to get support
- More opportunities
- Employers to give you the benefit of the doubt
- How can we get a job if we can't get experience
- Give you a trial

GOOD	BAD
Up to date information	Might be a con

WHAT DO WE NEED MORE OF?

- More advice in school, which is unbiased and accurate
- Places to go for advise
- More access to jobcentres
- More advertising
- More transport

- More access to pc and internet
- On-going support
- More access to modern apprenticeships with less qualifications
- More access in schools to practical taught courses.

WORKSHOP 2 - BRITON FERRY POWER RANGERS

- ⌘ What stops you finding work?
- ⌘ What problems have you faced?
- ⌘ What would help if it were available?

WHAT STOPS YOU FINDING WORK/WHAT PROBLEMS HAVE YOU FACED?

- Lack of confidence
- Job centers are open during school times so we can't get there
- Transport
- Parents – they don't think it is the right job for you
- Time to look
- Lack of education
- Affects household benefits
- Wages – should be equal
- Pay tax to a government we can not vote for
- Criminal record could lead to mistrust
- Finance
- No qualifications
- Pregnancy

WHAT WOULD HELP IF IT WERE AVAILABLE?

- Bus passes to work
- Training (options need to be wider)
- Modern apprenticeships only those with four GCSE's can apply!
What about the rest of us?
- God accurate careers
- Information before options
- Work experience – more weeks and more range of jobs
- Filling in forms
- Better transport – there are no buses up the valleys in time to start work
- Same age to be classed as an adult. Now you are an adult at 14 years for transport, 16 years for benefits/voting, 18 years for full pay/working.

- Should be all one age
- Classes to improve confidence for interviews

Economic Inactivity of 18-25 year olds in Pelenna Ward Neath Port Talbot

Selected results of a recent Communities First questionnaire in Pelenna: Approximately 40% of residents completed the questionnaire.

The most relevant evidence relating to economic inactivity was that 36.7% of residents have no formal qualifications. 49% are in favour of small business developments in Pelenna and 71% agreed the need for a youth provision in Pelenna.

Only 32% have internet access at home and there is no childcare provision or after school clubs in Pelenna. So the 'Breakfast in Schools' scheme will enable parents to take their children to school earlier and, hence, start work earlier.

Transport is an issue for people who live in this area. Port Talbot and Swansea are very difficult to get to. Pelenna is a significantly more remote place to live than places with better transport links, internet access and childcare facilities. If these factors could be addressed, and access to other areas with greater job opportunities was made easier (and more identifiable), the people of Pelenna would have increased options. These options would go some way to counteract the common culture of apathy amongst the 18-25 year old group in Pelenna.

If Jobcentreplus were able to employ Communities First Liaison Officers to work full time, concentrating on one area with specific needs at a time, perhaps more positive action would result.

Most businesses in Pelenna are small business, e.g. roofers, builders. There are rumours that there is a black labour market in this area, as young people feel they can earn a living without declaring their work. There is no proof of how widespread this is in actual fact.

If this is really an issue, as well as the suggestions raised above, educating young people (and employers) that there is a more beneficial alternative available to them, may go some way to legitimise economic activity in this area, e.g. various incentives making people better off in work; in-work training provision to give people qualifications; employer grants to subsidise training etc.

Perhaps a 'softly, softly' fraud drive, where offenders and employers are given warnings and informed of the alternatives, would have a more positive effect than prosecutions.

Jobcentreplus Action Team for Jobs

Jobcentreplus Action Team for Jobs in Neath Port Talbot has a full time secondee from Careers Wales West. He deals with any queries from this client group. He has experience and knowledge of Modern Apprenticeships and other training in the area. He also refers clients to Youth Gateway and Careers Wales West for further advice and guidance.

Another secondee is a Youth Worker from the Prince's Trust who deals primarily with this age group. She runs a surgery from Clarewood, a Youth hostel run by the Foyer organisation, every two weeks and helps clients look for training and employment. She offers jobsearch, completion of CV's / application forms and other useful advice and support.

Action Team for Jobs also attends the YMCA in Taibach Port Talbot which houses 13 young men at a time. An Action Team adviser visits weekly and offers the same service as above and sometimes more, e.g. confidence building, interview techniques, telephone skills. This has been happening for over a year and a good relationship with both staff and clients has been built. They have found that regular contact from the same adviser gains trust. The adviser deals with all types of benefit recipients, Incapacity Benefit, Income Support and Job Seekers Allowance, also those not claiming any benefit.

Comments from the client group show that they find it difficult to use the Jobpoints (automated systems to find vacancies opportunities) in the Jobcentreplus offices and often get frustrated when they can't find what they want. Job Seeker Direct (a telephone call centre advising about available vacancy opportunities) is also felt to be a barrier, until the clients build up their confidence, speaking to someone over the telephone is another hurdle.

They prefer to call and see Action Team for Jobs in one of their outreach offices rather than visit a Jobcentreplus office. The Jobseeker feels there is more time to offer them and it is more informal, they also feel more at ease when dealing with personal matters. Financial assistance has been a big help to this group of clients. Without it many of them would not have returned to work or taken up training opportunities.
