Dear Andrew

Further to my letter of 24th September outlining the amount of money the Welsh Assembly Government has spent on legal and surveyors fees on the sale of land, it has been brought to my attention that the figure provided included payments to surveyors that were not related to land disposals. I apologise for this error and have asked my officials to look into this matter further, to provide clarification.

I can confirm that the Welsh Assembly Government spent £75,915.57 on legal and surveyors fees on the sale of land during the 2008/09 financial year.

Andrew
