Dear Rhys,

Thank you for tabling your written question (WQ98013) in the Senedd on 16 January 2026 about Maindy Park, Cardiff being recognised with heritage status in conjunction with the hosting of the 2027 Tour de France.

In 2021 Maindy Park was evaluated by Cadw and found not to meet the criteria for statutory designation either as a listed building or registered historic park and garden. No additional evidence has since been found to justify changing that decision.

However, you may wish to contact Cardiff Council about the possibility of local listing. Advice on this option is available from Cadw's published guidance Historic assets of special local interest | Cadw.

Yours sincerely,

Jack Sargeant AS/MS
