Dear Andrew,

I am writing to response to WQ86433: Will the Minister provide an update on what support is available to young people regarding job interview techniques?

There is a range of support under the Young Person's Guarantee to help young people into work, including support on job interview techniques:

Getting a Job | Careers Wales \(gov.wales\); Interview techniques | Careers Wales \(gov.wales\);

Communities for Work \(CfW\), Parents, Childcare and Employment \(PaCE\) and Communities for Work+ (CfW+) provide support to young people on CV writing, job search and interview techniques, alongside helping them address their other barriers to employment and accessing training; and Jobs Growth Wales+ Programme Specification states that work placements and work experience for young people should meet a number of criteria including, where possible, providing a real job interview.

On 22 October I launched enhanced Employment and Enterprise Bureaus to help young people prepare for the world of work and which also offer various interview related support.

Yours sincerely
