At/To David Melding:

Shortly before the Cabinet reorganisation, you tabled a written question (WAQ64349) regarding what measures are in place to promote a whole-family approach to improving fitness.

The Change4Life campaign is supporting people to achieve a healthy body weight, to eat well, drink sensibly and be more physically active. Over 54,000 families and adults are active members, Change4Life seeks to provide families with fun, practical ideas to address their eating and physical activity habits.

Resources and Food, on 24 April 2013

At/To Antoinette Sandbach:

I am writing in response to your recent Written Assembly Question;

Further to the oral statement on 12 March 2013 concerning the Working Smarter Update Report, will the Minister a) confirm the full remuneration of, and b) provide a copy of the job description for, the 'communications specialist' recruited for CAP Reform and Glastir communications. (WAQ64356)

Following the recent portfolio changes, I am reviewing my communications strategy for Natural Resource and Food and this post. Working Smarter, Glastir and CAP will form part of that review.

I would envisage this post will attract salary in the region of the standard pay bracket of £44,000 to £54,400 pa on a full time basis.
