Amendments tabled on 2 March 2004

To propose that the Assembly resolves to adopt the following amendments to motions:

NDM2336

1. Jocelyn Davies (South Wales East)

Believes that making provision for free personal care for the elderly would ensure their dignity and avoid the humiliation of means testing.

Amendments to Orders Tabled on 3 March 2005

NDM2326

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales resolves to make the following amendments to The National Assistance (Assessment of Resources) (Amendment) (Wales) Regulations 2005 laid in the Table Office on 10 February 2005:

In regulation '20A Capital limit – Wales' delete '£21,000' and replace with '£60,000' and in regulation '28A Calculation of tariff income from capital – Wales' delete '£21,000' and replace with '£60,000'.

Statement of Purpose and Costs

Purpose

The purpose of the amendment is to further extend free personal care to those who need it by raising the upper capital limit before which councils can compel someone to sell their home to pay for care.

Costs

The cost of the proposed amendment is £23.4 million. This is based on the premise that every £1,000 increase to the upper capital limit costs the Welsh Assembly Government £600,000. These figures have been calculated based upon costing work already undertaken by the Welsh Assembly Government
