Dear Rhys

I am writing in response to WQ86136: What provision is there to ensure that patients who are called for their COVID-19 booster jab can easily contact their health board to rearrange their given date if it is not suitable?

The arrangement or amendment of appointments for the COVID-19 vaccine are an operational matter for local health boards. Currently all health boards have telephone booking lines which enable patients to reschedule their appointments and 5 out of 7 health boards are also utilising an online booking facility.

Yours sincerely
