Introduction

This paper provides an update on the most recent developments on Brexit of relevance to Wales. It includes sections on the work of the Assembly and Welsh Government; EU; UK; and Scotland and Ireland. The period covered is 24 September – 8 October 2019, although reference is made to later events where information is available at time of final drafting.
Developments in Wales

National Assembly for Wales

External Affairs and Additional Legislation Committee

The External Affairs and Additional Legislation (EAAL) Committee is the lead Committee in the Assembly for co-ordinating the Brexit-related activities of Committees.

The EAAL Committee is currently undertaking work on Changes to Freedom of Movement after Brexit: the implications for Wales, International Agreements, Follow-up work on Brexit Preparedness and follow-up work on Brexit preparedness.

The most recent sessions of the EAAL Committee were:

- 30 September: The Committee held a focus group with EU nationals and partner organisations to gain an understanding of their lived experience.
- 7 October: The Committee held a scrutiny session with the Counsel General and Brexit Minister. Find the transcript here.

On 7 October the Committee noted:

- Correspondence from the Auditor General for Wales to the Chair regarding follow-up to the Auditor General for Wales' report: 'Preparations in Wales for a 'no deal' Brexit' - 27 September 2019.

On 9 July the Committee launched its consultation into changes to freedom of movement after Brexit - implications for Wales. The consultation closed on 10 September, the Committee is considering the responses it received. The Committee published its fourth report on International Agreements: Implications for Wales in September 2019.

On 2 October the Climate Change, Environment and Rural Affairs Committee published its report on Environmental principles and governance post-Brexit.

The Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee publish reports on Subordinate Legislation relating to the UK's exit from the EU. They can be found on the Committee's webpages. The Committee is currently carrying out an inquiry in Wales' Changing Constitution including consideration of the implications of new levels of UK governance as a result of Brexit on the Welsh devolution settlement.
