Introduction

This paper provides an update on the most recent developments on Brexit of relevance to Wales. It includes sections on the work of the Assembly and Welsh Government; EU; UK; and Scotland and Ireland. The period covered is 8 – 29 October 2019, although reference is made to later events where information is available at time of final drafting.
Developments in Wales

National Assembly for Wales

External Affairs and Additional Legislation Committee

The External Affairs and Additional Legislation (EAAL) Committee is the lead Committee in the Assembly for co-ordinating the Brexit-related activities of Committees.

The EAAL Committee is currently undertaking work on Changes to freedom of movement after Brexit: the implications for Wales; International Agreements; and Follow-up work on Brexit preparedness.

The most recent sessions of the EAAL Committee were:

- 14 October: The Committee held two round table discussions with academics, one on the scrutiny of UK-wide common policy frameworks, and one on the scrutiny of international agreements. Find the transcript here.
- 21 October: The Committee held an evidence session with the Finnish Ambassador on the Finnish Presidency of the EU Council. This was followed by a round table discussion with academics on the Welsh Government’s draft international strategy. Find the transcript here.
- 24 October: The Committee held a Scrutiny session with Michael Gove MP, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster. The session is available to watch on Senedd TV.

On 14 October the Committee noted:

- Consultation responses re Changes to freedom of movement after Brexit - the implications for Wales - September 2019.
- Correspondence from the Minister for International Relations and the Welsh Language regarding international agreements - 3 October 2019.

On 21 October the Committee noted:

- Correspondence from the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster regarding common frameworks - 14 October 2019.

On 9 July the Committee launched its consultation into changes to freedom of movement after Brexit - implications for Wales. The consultation closed on 10 September, the Committee is considering the responses it received. The Committee published its fourth report on International Agreements: Implications for Wales in September 2019.

On 2 October the Climate Change, Environment and Rural Affairs Committee published its report on Environmental principles and governance post-Brexit. On 23 October the Committee published its report The Welsh Government’s proposed Sustainable Farming Scheme: restoring biodiversity. In a press release the Committee asked the Welsh Government to put protecting endangered species and encouraging biodiversity at the heart of its post-Brexit farming policy.

At the 25 October meeting of the Committee for the Scrutiny of the First Minister the discussion focused on the latest development in relation to Brexit. The session is available to watch on Senedd TV.

The Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee publish reports on Subordinate Legislation relating to the UK’s exit from the EU. They can be found on the Committee’s webpages. The Committee is currently carrying out an inquiry in Wales’ Changing Constitution including consideration of the implications of new levels of UK governance as a result of Brexit on the Welsh devolution settlement.

On 18 October the Committee received a letter from the Minister for Finance and Trefnydd: UK regulations relating to exiting the European Union.
