Dear Adam,

I'm writing in response to:

WAQ79890: Will the Minister state the number of coronavirus testing facilities in Wales, their locations, whether or not they are drive-in or other types and which of these were open over Easter weekend?

The precise information on testing facilities is held by and available through the local health boards. There are multiple testing facilities across Wales, with more facilities being set up in the coming weeks and my focus is on making sure that these facilities come on line as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely,

Vaughan Gething AC/AM
