Dear Darren,

I'm writing in response to WQ80722: How many public appointments have been made to NHS organisations in Wales since 27 June 2019 and what proportion of these were from black, Asian and minority ethnic backgrounds?

A total of 20 regulated Ministerial public appointments have been made to NHS organisations since 27 June 2019, of which 5% were from candidates identifying as being from Black, Asian Minority Ethnic (BAME) backgrounds.

'A total of 20 regulated Ministerial public appointments have been made to NHS organisations since 27 June 2019. Only 15 out of the 20 appointees provided information on their ethnicity and of those 15, only one identified as being from a Black, Asian or Minority Ethnic background.'
